

Grand Canyon University Scholarship

Grand Canyon University, in partnership with Christian Home Educators Association of California, intends to award $1,500 scholarships to three graduating Junior or Senior homeschool students who are continuing their education at Grand Canyon University. These awards are renewable each year of the student's attendance at GCU if the minimum conditions are met. Applications must be submitted to CHEA no later than February 28. If the applicant has not received a letter of acceptance from GCU in time to include it with their application, the rest of the application should be sent to CHEA by the February 28 deadline. GCU's notification of acceptance may be submitted upon receipt.

Student Eligibility

1. Applicants must have been privately homeschooled (not enrolled in a public school program), with their parents teaching them at home at least 51% of the time and at least 51% of the academic subjects, for at least the last four years.
2. Applicants must be at least 17 by December 1 and no older than 19 on June 30.
3. Applicants' parents must be current CHEA Members.
4. Applicants must be accepted for admission to on-site classes and live in the Residential Halls at Grand Canyon University for the upcoming school year. The scholarship is not available for registration for online classes.
5. Applicants must begin attending the semester directly after high school graduation.
6. Applicant must be willing to submit a photo for promotional purposes.

The following items are to be submitted:

1. Grand Canyon University Scholarship Application
2. Signed Photo Release Form

CHEA may wish to print the scholarship winner's photo in one or more of its publications and/or on the website or social media. www.cheaofca.org
3. Brief statement telling of the student's personal Christian faith and conversion. This must be no longer than one page
4. Student essay explaining how homeschooling has affected their lives, why they want to attend Grand Canyon University, and what their goals are for the future. This must be no longer than one page.
5. Student transcript of high school work, including first semester of current year's work.
6. List of all courses taken each year for the past four years which were taught either outside the home or by someone other than the parent.
7. Notification of acceptance from Grand Canyon University

Each page should include the student's name in the upper left corner.

Each page must be printed on one side of the paper only.

Essays should each take only one page

All forms should be mailed to GCU/CHEA Scholarship, CHEA of California, 12672 Limonite Ave. Ste. 3E #514, Eastvale, CA, 92880, postmarked no later than February 28, or emailed to office@cheaofca.org by February 28.

Applicants will be notified of the scholarship results by May 1. No funds will be issued to the student. The scholarship will be applied directly to the student's tuition.
